

EPFL Network

On the EPFL network, you are assigned a static IPv6 and a domain accessible for the other user of the network. It changes each time you reconnect. You can get those value here.

This is quite useful to setup temporary servers (e.g. for events) like it was done for the first version of Overclicked, where the server was setup on one of the computer used as a register.

---

Revision #2

Created 12 December 2024 13:57:25 by IT CLIC

Updated 24 July 2025 15:28:16 by IT CLIC